Services Provided

We provide general insurance & life assurance policies (Term Assurance, Mortgage Protection, Serious Illness Cover, Income Protection, Personal & Company Pensions, PRSA's and Savings Plans) on a fair and personal analysis basis (providing services on the basis of a sufficiently large number of contracts and product producers available in the market to enable the firm to make a recommendation, in accordance with professional criteria, regarding which contract would be adequate to meet your needs)

We will identify and select a suitable product producer and on receipt of your instructions we will transmit orders on your behalf to one or more product producers (a list of which is available on request).

- This process applies to all classes of insurance policies with the exception of Schemes which are managed by us and Health Insurance which is placed with Irish Life Health.
- A Scheme is an arrangement whereby agreement is reached with a Product Producer (Insurer) to accept risks of a particular class at preferential terms and premium. For example, we presently arrange Schemes for Sports Personal Accident, Legal Expenses, Coach Fleet and Liability, Jewellers. If we have a Scheme in existence for the risk presented then we may not seek to obtain alternative quotations.
- Other than for Schemes and Health Insurance this firm does not have a 'tied' relationship with any Product Producer (Insurer) which would compromise our ability to offer you advice and choice.

Your Protection

We maintain Professional Indemnity Insurance.

Calls may be recorded for training and quality and these recordings may be used in the event of a dispute.

Consumer Insurance Act 2019

If you fall within the definition of ‘consumer’ as set out in the Consumer Insurance Act 2019, certain provisions of the Act impose new responsibilities on insurers and consumers, aimed at enhancing consumer protection. Set out below are some specific points arising from the new legislation effective from 1 September 2020.

New Business & Renewal

If you have taken out a life insurance contract, you may cancel the contract by giving notice in writing to us within 30 days after the date you were informed the contract is on cover. If you have taken out a general insurance contract, you may cancel the contract by giving notice in writing to us within 14 days after the date you were informed the contract is on cover.

The consumer is under a duty to pay their premium within a reasonable time, or otherwise in accordance with the terms of the contract of insurance. A court of competent jurisdiction can reduce the pay-out to the consumer where they are in breach of their duties under the Act, in proportion to the breach involved.

The giving of notice of cancellation by you will have the effect of releasing you from any further obligation arising from the contract of insurance. The insurer cannot impose any costs on you other than the cost of the premium for the period of cover.

This right to cancel does not apply where, in respect of life insurance the contract is for a duration of six months or less, or in respect of general insurance, the duration of the contract is less than one month.

Post-Contract Stage and Claims (General Insurance)

If, in respect of the insurance contract the insurer is not obliged to pay the full claim settlement amount until any repair, replacement or reinstatement work has been completed and specified documents for the work have been furnished to the insurer, the claim settlement deferment amount cannot exceed

- 5% of the claim settlement amount where the claim settlement amount is less than €40,000, or
- 10% of the claim settlement amount where the claim settlement amount is more than €40,000.

General and Financial Services

An insurer may refuse a claim made by you under a contract of insurance where there is a change in the risk insured, including as described in an “alteration of risk” clause, and the circumstances have so changed that it has effectively changed the risk to one which the insurer has not agreed to cover.

Any clause in a contract of insurance that refers to a “material change” will be interpreted as being a change that takes the risk outside what was in the reasonable contemplation of the both you and the insurer when the contract was concluded.

You must cooperate with the insurer in an investigation of insured events including responding to reasonable requests for information in an honest and reasonably careful manner and must notify the insurer of the occurrence of an insured event in a reasonable time.

You must notify the insurer of a claim within a reasonable time, or otherwise in accordance with the terms of the contract of insurance.

If you become aware after a claim is made of information that would either support or prejudice the claim, you are under a duty to disclose it. (The insurer is under the same duty).

If you make a false or misleading claim in any material respect (and know it to be false or misleading or consciously disregards whether it is) the insurer is entitled to refuse to pay and to terminate the contract.

Where an insurer becomes aware that a consumer has made a fraudulent claim, they may notify the consumer advising that they are voiding the contract of insurance, and it will be treated as being terminated from the date of the submission of the fraudulent claim. The insurer may refuse all liability in respect of any claim made after the date of the fraudulent act, and the insurer is under no obligation to return any of the premiums paid under the contract.

Duty of Disclosure (all classes of insurance)

It is your responsibility to provide complete and accurate information for insurers when arranging an insurance policy, throughout the life of that policy and when you are renewing it. It is important that you ensure that all information provided and all statements made on proposal forms, claim forms and other documents are to your knowledge and belief, complete and accurate. Failure to disclose any material information to your insurers could invalidate your insurance cover and could mean that all or part of a claim will not be paid.
